

UIU ranked top private university in QS rankings

BD Post Desk

United International University has been ranked among top 350 universities in Asia.

According to the list of QS Asia University Ranking 2019, only two public and four private universities from Bangladesh have been ranked where Dhaka University occupied 127th and BUET occupied 175th position, says a press release.

UIU along with BRAC University and North South University has been placed in top 301-350 in the rankings.

QS (Quacquarelli Symonds) ranking is the most prestigious and widely accepted ranking in the educational World, the release said.

UIU vice-chancellor Prof Dr Chowdhury Mofizur Rahman expressed satisfaction over the achievement of UIU.